Attended the Secretary's staff meeting.

Saw Viscount Knollys, who has been stationed in Washington as a Minister at the British Embassy and is leaving on Friday to return to his own business in London. I had stayed with him years ago in Bermuda.

Had a talk with Dr. Raymond Allen on PSB matters.

Saw Eddie Locke. He is returning today to the Middle East.

John Gunther came in to see me; he intends to write a book called "Inside Africa".

Asked Eddie Miller to come in [redacted] to discuss some of the problems in Latin America.

A long meeting on Formosa with Messrs. Matthews, Hitze, Allison and Humelsine.

Carl Humelsine and I left the meeting for a few minutes to attend Angie Duke's swearing-in as Ambassador to El Salvador. Cordelia and Tom were there.

Ambassador Cowen came [redacted] to see me before his departure for Belgium.

Dean and Alice came by for cocktails at six o'clock.

Dinner with the Wisners at their house.
